IN MISERY.

There is a bird with fine feathers that hides his head and imagines himself concealed. There are boys and men as well who come themselves, and in their misery, would have others with them, for "misery loves company," and go about twisting language and warping conditions, thereby forcing favorable constructions. His friends are delighted and there can scarcely be found a man in these parts who does not say that he will stand by Heckham as long as he is a candidate.

In speaking of the matter the other day several men who are thoroughly familiar with the prevailing conditions in the State, said that Governor Beckham would be a hard man to beat, and they gave as their reason that his administration, so far, has been one of the ablest, cleanest and best ever experienced in the State. They not only point out the fact that he has been absolutely clean and free from adverse criticism, but that he has been wise in his selection of good and fit men to fill the numerous vacancies it has been his lot to fill since he has been in office. Then, too, they say that the removal of Dr. McCormick, one of his own appointees, and a man from his section of the State, shows that he will do his duty it matters not who is concerned. Gov. Beckham, they assert, has issued fewer pardons during the time he has been in office than has any other Governor in this State in the same length of time. The Governor's friends say that few men would, during the troublesome times following Gov. Goebel's assassination, have acted so cautiously and consistently. His calling of an extra session of the legislature and asking for a law which would suit both parties alike is said by his friends to be one of the strongest points in his favor and they believe his unusual party service should be recognized by a second nomination.

A GOOD MAN.

Several of the Democratic papers of the State have spoken in favor of W. B. O'Connell, of this city, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. If the party want a man in every way qualified for the position Mr. O'Connell is the Democrat that will fill the bill, and because of his Democracy and qualifications we give testimony to the party and urge that he be named.

Claude Chinn! let's see, isn't he the man who was elected County Clerk of Fayette county by the Democrats and who has been in so much trouble recently? Well, if this is the Mr. Chinn who refused to support Democratic nominees recently and is now asking the Republicans to make him their nominee, the Republicans should consider his claim on them. What is it he possesses that is so much like unto Republicanism.

By the vote to be taken in Morehead June 11th will be determined whether the good citizens prefer the saloon or an industrial school under the auspices of the Christian Women's Board of Missions.

Mrs. McKinley has so much improved that the President will start with her for home in a few days. The country rejoices with the Chief Executive because of the restoration of his devoted wife.

Killing in Morgan.

Another killing in Morgan county is reported. On Rock House W. L. Brown cut Buck Hensley's throat with a knife, killing him instantly. The trouble arose over a horse trade.

GOVERNOR BECKHAM.

Nice Things Said About a Great Man—His Mistakes Have Been Few.

The following from the Frankfort correspondent of the Louisville Critic, we clip entirely. It is worth the reading and worthy of due consideration:

The Critic's mention a few weeks ago of the fact that several prominent lawyers had asserted that Gov. J. W. C. Heckham is eligible to a second term seems not only to have stirred up the papers over the State, but the politicians are discussing it everywhere. As yet Gov. Beckham has given out no intimation as to what his ambitions are for the future and he has not even mentioned to his closest friends whether or not he will try for the nomination, but this fact does not keep the politician from talking. His friends are delighted and there can scarcely be found a man in these parts who does not say that he will stand by Heckham as long as he is a candidate.

In speaking of the matter the other day several men who are thoroughly familiar with the prevailing conditions in the State, said that Governor Beckham would be a hard man to beat, and they gave as their reason that his administration, so far, has been one of the ablest, cleanest and best ever experienced in the State. They not only point out the fact that he has been absolutely clean and free from adverse criticism, but that he has been wise in his selection of good and fit men to fill the numerous vacancies it has been his lot to fill since he has been in office. Then, too, they say that the removal of Dr. McCormick, one of his own appointees, and a man from his section of the State, shows that he will do his duty it matters not who is concerned. Gov. Beckham, they assert, has issued fewer pardons during the time he has been in office than has any other Governor in this State in the same length of time. The Governor's friends say that few men would, during the troublesome times following Gov. Goebel's assassination, have acted so cautiously and consistently. His calling of an extra session of the legislature and asking for a law which would suit both parties alike is said by his friends to be one of the strongest points in his favor and they believe his unusual party service should be recognized by a second nomination.

The race for the nomination for Prison Commissioner has opened up and already the candidates are hard at work. Hon. Edward Fennell, of Harrison county, one of the members of the present commission, is a candidate to succeed himself. Mr. Fennell is very popular here and throughout the State and the chances are at present that he will receive the nomination. He has an opponent, however, in the person of Senator W. O. Coleman, who is also a good Democrat and a popular man. Senator Coleman served in the last State Senate. His home is in Henry county.

Then the time of the Hon. Jim Richardson, of Barren county, expires at the same time and Mr. Richardson will be a candidate for re-election. Mr. Henry George, of Graves county, will oppose him for the nomination. Mr. Richardson is one of the most popular newspaper men in the State and he has a host of friends who are enthusiastically for him in Louisville and all parts of Kentucky.

The Board of Equalization has begun to experience its busiest time. It will be in session about a month longer and it has a great deal of work before it. Among the delegations that appear before the Board daily are some of the best known politicians in the State

Congressman George G. Gilbert of the Eighth District, was in the city last week. He took a very view of the political situation in the State and in conversation with friends, he said that he felt certain from present indications, that the next legislature will be safely Democratic. He said the party seemed to be in better shape than it had been for some time and that there are abundant evidences that the disgruntled element of the party is swinging into line. Mr. Gilbert said he felt sure that the Democrats will be successful.

NOTES FROM HAZEL GREEN.

A convention will be held here on Thursday, May 23, to nominate a Democratic candidate for the 91st Legislative district—Morgan and Wolfe counties.

Revs. Dickey, of Campton; Neal, of Grayson, and Tindler, of Carlisle, will deliver addresses during commencement week at Hazel Green Academy.

Judge Swango has a bed coverlet which was presented to him by his grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Trimble, who has been dead 45 years. The loom upon which it was woven had 17 treadles to operate to weave in the various figures and colors.

Will Ceell, of Cedar Bluff, Va., is visiting relatives and friends in and about Hazel Green.

Married, at the residence of J. M. Nickell, on Red river, Miss America Nickell and a young Mr. Stamper, on Sunday, the 11th inst.

John Pieratt, who is now traveling for a Louisville harness and saddlery house, left on Monday for a tour of Elliott and Lawrence counties.

(See Births.)

Another Residence Burned.

On Wednesday morning about 3 o'clock the residence on J. G. Trimble's farm, near the city, on the Owingsville pike, was completely destroyed by fire. A defective chimney is supposed to be the cause. The building was occupied by Robert E. White and family. He was on the Licking river fishing at the time. But little of the household goods was saved by the family, as the fire was under headway when discovered. Hoffman's agency carried a policy for $4.

The house was not insured. It was one of the old land-marks in this section. Mr. Trimble said that when he first visited Mt. Sterling, 67 years ago, that the residence then appeared to have been several years old.

During Mr. Trimble's fire in this city he has lost by fire his brick livery and this frame residence by accident, and his private barn by an incendiary. He had no insurance on either.

Skin affections will readily disappear by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Look out for counterfeits. If you get DeWitt's you will get good results. It is the quick and positive cure for piles. F. C. Duerson.

Decoration Day will be on Thursday of next week.

FACTS AND OBSERVATIONS

TO JACKSON AND OWINGSVILLE.

On Friday, May 10, at Torrent we met Miss Sue Sublette and Mrs. A. Bourne, of Lexington, Ky., and Mrs. Helen Moses, of Indianapolis, who had been to Hazel Green on business connected with the Hazel Green Academy. We did not learn what the C. W. B. M. will do. In the afternoon we went to Athol, and there, through the courtesy of Mr. Kratter, in charge of the pay car, we rode to Jackson, arriving at 7 o'clock. We always stop at the Arlington and are cordially received by Judge Hagins and wife. This was "Society" night at the hotel. Twenty couple responded to the appeals of a string band. We were not invited to take part. We saw the whirl of white and pink and blue and red, and enjoyed the sights and sounds. Our sleep was not interrupted as the merry go round continued.

On Saturday morning we met Mr. John D. Strong, whom we had not seen for about twenty-six years, when he was a miller about Hazel Green, and the writer was a mill boy. He had been a resident of Breathitt county before locating at Hazel Green. This was during the reign of feuds in Breathitt. Circumstances were such that he contemplated a return to his native county. His wife fearing that he might become involved in the feud obliged, especially if he continued to drink whiskey. He then and there promised to drink no more whiskey. They returned to Breathitt. He informed the writer that his promise had been kept.

We wish that all men would part company with the accursed stuff. If so, this old world of ours would enter upon a new era of happiness and prosperity and thousands of men would be saved annually from drunkard's graves and hell.

THE ACADEMY.

We went to the academy. Prof. Dinwiddie kindly showed us the sights which we had not previously seen, and written in our Facts and Observations. The Manual Training Department is an important one in the school. There is a well equipped carpenter's department, including ten lathes and forge and drill. We were shown samples in match boxes, Indian clubs, book-racks, tables, stands, book-cases, etc., all the work of the boys.

In the Sewing Department the girls are instructed in drawing, designing and dress-making. There are four machines in this room.

We were shown through the kitchen where the girls receive regular instructions. (This kitchen is separate from the regular kitchen, where cooking is done for the occupants of the dormitory.)

There are six members of the Senior Class, and once each week a meal is prepared for invited guests.

One girl will buy what is to be used, and prepare the food, another does the cooking, another supervises the table, etc., and thus the work is done in courses from week to week. We were not there on company day. If we are invited to partake of such a meal, the announcement will be made as a Fact & Observation. As a part of the Culinary Department is a laboratory supplied with acids, spices, extracts, measures, etc., etc. Chemical effects and combinations are studied, as they apply to cooking.

Each department is under an instructor, well qualified, we suppose, for the work assigned.

These comments are made because the Advocate P. Co. are friends and advocates of education and religion and what else is for the good of man. We did not ask for advertisement or job work.

We want all our readers to know something of what is being done in educational lines in our Kentucky mountain section.

We took dinner with Mr. Floyd Day. He has an interesting family of five girls—all small. Mrs. Day handed to us the babe. We enjoyed nursing the sweet innocence.

Mr. Day is, we presume, the most extensive mill and lumber man in eastern Kentucky and has a fine trade.

We were pleased to meet Mack Clark. He is a bustling business man, but unmarried. On the morning of our call he had sold to George Ilon, of Winchester, for the Reliance Manufacturing Co., of that city, 80 car loads of lumber. Mack is one of the "chief men" of the Day Bros. Lumber Co.

SMALL POX.

We will not give details of the man who with a well developed case of small pox rode to town with his wife and was trading in the store when the doctor informed him that his disease was small pox and told him to go home. This occurred on the day we were in Jackson. The man did not know he had small pox. Said his father had the same for three weeks.

On the train coming down was S. S. Taulbee, County Clerk, en route to Covington as witness in the Federal Court. We reached home on Saturday night after spending two hours at Dodge, Schellville and at the residence of Dr. Combs.

The Democratic primary to select candidates for county offices had recently been held. The method of conducting the primary has been severely criticised, especially by the present County Judge, J. W. Hagins, who was a candidate for the nomination. His dissatisfaction found expression in a hand-bill which spoke in plain terms of fraud, corruption and ballot-box stuffing.

We regret that there should have been anything which would cause or justify the publication of such a remonstrance, whether the fault be in Judge Hagins or in those whose conduct he criticises.

If a man has been fairly defeated, let him graciously submit and work for his successful opponent. He has no right to complain. If frauds and down-right thefts have been perpetrated, there ought to be protest—not by one man only, but by hundreds.

Our opinion on such matters has been frequently expressed, and we presume our readers know where we stand.

OWINGSVILLE.

On Monday we went to Owingsville, in the afternoon drove over to Salt Lick where we spent the night. If somebody does not give attention to that defective bridge on pike the county of Bath will have a suit for damages, after a serious accident where a woman and two children have been killed and her husband seriously crippled because the horse stepped in one of those openings or a plank struck him and he ran away and demolished the carriage with above casualties.

We reached home on Tuesday morning and in afternoon went to Mt. Middletown for various reasons. Our next trip will be to some other section and we will want the news.

This evening at Harry Campbell's new building, North Mayeville street, the ladies of the Episcopal church will give a strawberry supper from the most delicious berries of the season.

Hill, of Sharpshurg.

Suicide of George Hedges.

On Friday night at his home near Henry's Mill on Somerset Creek, George Hedges took laudanum with suicidal intent. He died on Saturday afternoon.

The inhuman crime of incest by George Hedges with his child was the cause that led to his suicide. He married the daughter of an upright citizen, who was a most excellent woman and exercised great care in bringing up her children. She died about six years ago. Hedges was a drinking man and while in a state of intoxication committed the unspeakable deed. So soon as the crime was made known, the Masons, of which organization Hedges was a member, notified him to appear before them, but rather than be exposed he secured four ounces of laudanum, took it and departed this life for the region of the damned.

Over the dead body of Hedges Esq. J. W. Henry held an inquest and these facts and the demand that his daughter charge the crime, to her brother-in-law, who is an upright citizen, came out. The citizens of Aaron's Run are greatly enraged because of the revolting crime and as a just retribution would have approved the severest punishment.

Some Wonderful Fossils.

Editor Mt. Sterling Advocate:

More than one hundred years ago James Douglas, filled with wonder and admiration, on beholding the vast numbers of enormous bones of the gigantic mastodons or mammoths that had perished at Big Bone Lick, lingered behind his party to examine and survey these new wonders.

More than one hundred mastodon skeletons have been found at this place and eagerly borne away to enrich the museums of Europe and America.

Picture to yourself a herd of one hundred of these ponderous prehistoric animals, five times as large as the elephant, and you will not wonder that even in that early day the minds of men were filled with wonder and admiration on beholding their enormous bones.

And what naturalist is there who does not mourn the zoological impoverishment of our world that resulted from their extinction?

In 1898 the old historic Blue Lick ceased to flow. Mr. Dan Turley, of Paris, offered the sum of $500 to any one who would find the lick and stop it. As a result of this offer there is now on exhibition for a few days in Mt. Sterling the finest collection of fossil mastodon or mammoth bones that has ever been carried through Kentucky.

These wonderful relics, the genuineness of which is unquestionable, are in charge of Messrs. T. W. Hutter and M. M. Gordley, who will take great pleasure in showing them to every one during their stay in our city.

Such a collection is worth any one's most careful and thoughtful inspection, and especially should it be seen as a means of education by all boys and girls under mental training.

These wonderful fossils of mastodon, buffalo, deer, elk and other curious animals were found near that old historic Blue Lick well, mingled together under a covering of ten feet of coarse gravel.

In this marvelous collection may be seen an enormous tusk that must have been twelve or fifteen feet long when complete, huge vertebrae twelve inches or more in diameter; sections of jaw bones with teeth still in place; many enormous teeth remarkably well preserved, some of which are eight inches in diameter, and many other curious "first bones of time."

Bargains for Cash Buyers.

THE BUSY BEE CASH STORE

Has decided to throw their entire stock of merchandise upon the market for 30 days the most unheard-of slaughtered prices ever before named in the history of Mt. Sterling.

Backward season, overbuying, overstocked and the crowded condition of our store has caused this sale. We are compelled to have money to meet our spring bills, and a great sacrifice sale helps our customers and helps us.

We shall take each Department as it comes and spare not a single article in any of them. We play no favorites. Nothing reserved. They must all go.

We commence this week with Clothing and Shoes. If you are familiar with our prices in these departments, you could not recognize them now. The cold steel of our keen-edged knife went to the quick, and not a single old price is left to tell the tale.

Suits that were $15 to $18 are now $9 to $11. Suits that were $10 to $12.50 are now $6.50 to $8. Suits that were $7.50 to $9 are now $3.48 to $4.98, and our lower-priced suits are almost thrown in to make up your bundle. Our Boys and Children's suits and pants have been cut so deep that you can't possibly recognize them. When we say half price we don't exaggerate. Call and see for yourselves; don't take our word for it. Bring your boys along, for you will wish you had. The suits can't stay with us long at these prices. We mean business.

We know it is death to competition to turn loose us big a stock of Shoes as we carry at prices we are turning them out at during this sale, but we can't help it. We are forced to do it. They must go or we must, and we prefer to stay.

Come and buy all the Shoes and Slippers you expect to need this spring and summer while this sale lasts. You have been our friends, and we appreciate it. This is good advice we give you. Profit by our loss while you can. This sale can't last long.

Watch our circular for sale date of other departments. They will all feel the knife before we ease up. This is the verdict of the Busy Bee Cash Store corporation and can't be changed.

Hoping our many friends and patrons will avail themselves of this unprecedented chance to buy all the goods they need for months to come, we are,

Very Respectfully,

OLDHAM BROS. & CO., Busy Bee Cash Store.

DEATHS.

MAJOR.—At Carlisle, the infant of Rev. W. H. Major.

WARD.—Wm. Ward, aged about 65 years, died at his home near Maytown, Ky., on Saturday night.

ROBINSON.—Mrs. James Robinson died on Friday night, May 17th, at her home near Maytown, Morgan County.

GAGE.—The wife of Mr. Gage, the Secretary of the Treasury, died at Washington City on Thursday night of nervous prostration.

PARKER.—Miss Ella Parker, a most estimable young lady, died at the residence of Mr. Peyton Robinson in Winchester on Wednesday morning of consumption.

HISKE.—Edward Hiske, son of Thos. Hiske, of Kiddleville neighborhood, died on Tuesday last of typhoid fever at Ashby College, Willmore, Ky. The burial was at Kiddleville on Wednesday.

YORK.—At Owensboro, James York, aged 12 years, while playing with other boys, put his hand on the cable which holds up an arched light and was instantly killed.

BENTON.—The wife of Rev. W. T. Benton, pastor of the Methodist Church, died at her home in Cynthiana on May 11th. She was a noble, christian woman. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. Redd, of Winchester, assisted by Rev. C. F. Oney and other ministers of Cynthiana.

VANARSDELL.—Mr. Emily C. Vanarsdell, aged 52 years, departed this life on Thursday evening, May 16, at 9 o'clock, of apoplexy. She was the widow of Judge I. M. Vanarsdell, who preceded her about six years ago. Mrs. Vanarsdell was a Miss Shubert; married in this county in 1870 and removed to Frenchburg, where she lived until 1891. She leaves three sons—J. W. of Washington City; C. L. with Walsh Bros., and R. L. with Cooper & Barnes. Mrs. Vanarsdell had been a member of the Christian church for more than thirty years. Her funeral was held at this church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. H. D. Clark and her remains were buried beside her husband's in the Macphail cemetery.

The death of this pious, Christian woman a vacuum is made, but the reflection of a beautiful life will go down the ages through the lives of her noble sons. Each of these boys has labored with us, and in speaking of them our statements come from knowledge. Of the stern and staid of exemplary ancestry we have a reason for high hopes and urge the boys on and on, gathering and dispensing, making the world the more beautiful. Mrs. Vanarsdell died as she had lived—very ready to meet Him whom she loved and for whom she had labored. May the boys be ever mindful of her beautiful life, her words of wisdom, that after awhile the Lord may call: "Come home, my children; we'll dine."

Another hand mark passes to his reward. On last Saturday, May 18, Mr. Wesley Orear, who was born April 30, 1800, and was therefore past 92 years old, died of general debility. He had been one of the Magistrates of this county. Had been U. S. mail carrier and to what every duty called he was faithful in its discharge. His children who survive him are Bert and Joe Orear, Mrs. J. S. Wyatt, Sr., and Mrs. Lou Ricketts. Mrs. Mary Stephens, Miss George Cheatham and Mrs. Nannie Welch, of Bates county, Mo. He had lived with Mrs. Stephens for several years. He had been a member of the Methodist church for a number of years and in this church in the absence of Pastor D. W. Robertson, his funeral was conducted by Rev. G. C. Abbott, who had often visited him in his last days. Remains were buried in Macphail cemetery. Mr. Orear was a just man. One who lived for a purpose and adhered to the principle which actuated to it. His children, grand children and great grand children are representative men and women of our county, exponents of noble ancestry. Peace to his ashes.
